A Drake & Josh movie is in the works and the show's stars have been spotted on set of the new project. According to Hollywood Reporter, Josh Peck and John Sanford were shooting a scene that takes place in a mall. According to some fans who attended a fan event for the cast, much of the mall was recreated for the script. "The mall in the new movie is a real mall and Drake & Josh has been filming for about a month here in Malibu," Malibu resident Theresa Ramist told THR. Additionally, producer Jerry Bruckheimer, who recently

Requirements: ☐ Yahoo Widget Engine Your "New" Car....or Not Remember a couple of years ago when the market was buoyant, the economy was strong, and owning a car was a very good thing to do? Don't get me wrong, it wasn't a bad thing, but there were lots of people that were buying new cars. However, the market soon changed direction, the economy slipped, and car sales fell - and some people became "car owner's". The same thing is happening now, as the car market is finally recovering from the housing and credit crises. The first part of the year was bad, but now the first quarter of 2011 has been good in terms of car sales. However, if you are now in the market, consider the following: It's not just the economy, it's also the consumer; There are different types of car buyers; There are three main types of buyer: The "glory hunter" - these are the type that do not just want a car, they want a new car, and are prepared to pay to have that new car. The "money wasters" - these are the type that will sit around the garage and look at the car every day, and only buy when it goes on sale, for the price that they can afford. Then there are those that are prepared to put down a deposit, but will only buy if they can get a good deal. So now that you know a little about car buying, what are you waiting
